Corus Procurement Ethics

Corus International and its family of organizations are committed to a transparent and ethical procurement process aiming to achieve the best value for money, fairness, integrity, and doing business in compliance with the US government regulations, the beneficiaries, donors, and partners' interests.

Corus does not allow accepting any monetary transaction, gratuity, or compensation of any type from current or potential vendors or suppliers in exchange for or as a reward for a business. Therefore, all potential vendors and suppliers taking part in this solicitation must not offer fraud, bribery, or kickback to an employee or staff of Corus. Any vendor or supplier violating these standards will be automatically disqualified for doing business with Corus in the future.

A comprehensive list of Corus's ethical standards as well as information on how to report any violation pertaining to this solicitation (Corus's Integrity and Ethics Reporting Hotline) is found here: https://corusinternational.org/ethics-and-policies-corus-international.

Corus International is an ensemble of organizations working together in the world's most fragile settings to deliver holistic, lasting solutions needed to overcome the interconnected challenges of poverty, climate change, and access to quality health care and education.

1- INTRODUCTION:

Corus International combines over 150 years of experience of our non-profit and for-profit subsidiary organizations – IMA World Health, Lutheran World Relief, CGA Technologies, Ground Up Investing, and Farmers Market Brands. Together, the organizations take a systematic approach to grow rural economies, eliminate extreme poverty, ensure access to quality healthcare, and respond to urgent humanitarian needs in fragile settings.

Corus leads an ensemble of social impact organizations working together in the world's most fragile settings to deliver the holistic, lasting solutions needed to overcome the interconnected challenges of poverty, health care access and climate change. Corus is a new model in the international space, creating a consortium of specialized non-profit and for-profit entities for greater impact. Our annual budgets have ranged between $110-130 million a year. Additional growth is expected.

Further details about the organization can be found at: https://corusinternational.org.

Objective:

Corus International seeks experienced, successful consultants to provide general business development support services. Support may include, but is not limited to, pre-award recruitment, proposal management or coordination, proposal writing, technical input provision, cost proposal development, and donor advisory services.

Tasks and Deliverables:

Upon a fully executed agreement, consultants will provide support as agreed upon through future purchase orders. Illustrative responsibilities may include, but are not limited to:

- Write complete, high quality proposals following donor-required formats. This includes writing sections of the proposal and/or assigning sections of the proposals to others, and receiving, responding, and incorporating feedback from reviews.
- Gather relevant research to support proposal managers and proposal writers.
- Develop competitive cost proposals, including detailed budgets and budget narratives.
- Write and provide strategic thinking to ensure competitive and robust proposals.
- Provide overall proposal development management.
- Conduct compliance reviews for proposals.
- Participate in coordination calls and discussions related to the design of bids.
- Ensure alignment between cost proposals and technical proposals, as necessary.
- Support the final editing and formatting of proposals and annexes.
- Develop technical design approaches with support from technical staff.
- Provide pre-award recruitment support.
- Provide trainings, which may include topics such as Business Development best practices or institutional donor engagement.
- Represent Corus International in external meetings, including meetings with partners and donors.
- Other responsibilities, as assigned.

Note: The Business Development team may request the consultants introduced by the consultancy firms to travel for specific proposal opportunities. This will be determined on a case-by-case basis between the business development team and the consultant.

Qualifications:

- At least 10 years of experience working in International Development, with at least 5 years' experience in proposal development.
- Experience with at least two of the following: recruitment, proposal writing, leading capture activities.
- Strong writing, communication, and facilitation skills.
- Strong proposal management and/or writing skills.

- Experience with donors including, but not limited to, USG, FCDO, EU and World Bank.
- Fluency in English. Proficiency or fluency in French and/or Spanish preferred.
- Ability to provide quality, cost-effective and timely business development support to Corus.
